

Known for her controversial in-your-face Keynotes, Global Referral Expert Hazel Walker breaks down the increasing importance of 360° RESPONSIBILITY™ in our every day lives and the importance of taking an honest look at the impact our actions have on a national and international level and the consequences of them.

Great for team building and creative out-the-box strategizing, Hazel brings together tools to:

- Formulate a better long-term business plan
- Consider alternative and new ways of increasing profit and public relations
- Tasking others that will affect them both in their business and personal lives
- Building a strong team of globally-conscious networkers

From basic responsibility even a child must take, to 100% responsibility taken by most adults; 360° RESPONSIBILITY™ challenges us all to consider our sphere of influence and help ourselves, as well as others, succeed both in our business and personal lives whilst elevating your team to a higher level of consideration it is having in this ever-shrinking global economy.

360° RESPONSIBILITY™ is so much more than just another speaking engagement and seminar. It's charged with helpful tips on changing your mentality and taking responsibility (or consequence) of how you do things. - A must for all businesses striving to compete in an increasingly worldwide marketplace.

Come and find out why people all over the world are raving about globally recognized referral expert Hazel Walker. With numerous books on how to network, including co-author of New York Best Seller, "Business Networking and Sex" and owner of the most successful franchise of the World's largest networking company Business Networking International (BNI) she's ready to excite and inspire your team with her practical and inspirational message on taking and owning 360° RESPONSIBILITY™.
